

Greetings from Adesh University

Are you an outstanding student and want to pursue Master's program in Dentistry

Adesh Institute Of Dental Sciences (Adesh university) invite you in choosing a future in Masters program in Orthodontics and Endodontics.(3 Seats Each)

We admit students on the basis of outstanding academic ability in their field and help them acquiring required skills thus making them trade ready.

We encourage you to apply for the financial aid that can help make an ADESH DENTAL SCHOOL education a reality for you.

University is aware that you're seeking the best possible education, and that costs involved are always a consideration. Your education is an important financial investment We are committed to providing opportunities for gifted students. Adesh University offers financial aid to the meritorious students. eg Individual grants, Scholarships, Loans, or a combination of aid worth Lakhs of Rupees.

To help you receive maximum consideration, our Financial Aid Office will advise you on types of aid available and how to apply.

Eligibility

To be eligible to receive financial aid High scores in NEET PG entrance exam and Aptitude is needed; Amount of aid is decided after an interview by the Admissions and Scholarship committee

Outside state students can also apply.

Deadlines for scholarships.

Early applications to Adesh University make the processes easy and help decide accordingly.

Tuition Fee.

The tuition fee for MDS course is 5 lacs 85 thousand per year, minus any financial aid that has been awarded.

Contact our Financial Aid guide at our admissions Office Mob:9417091292. When applying please send all relevant documents along with NEET Marks Card with subject for admission to MDS in the email at aidsr@adeshuniversity.ac.in.