

CENTRE FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION, ADESH UNIVERSITY

Prospectus

Fellowship in Assessment of Health Professions (FAHP)

1. Introduction: Adesh University has given faculty development as an important input to maintain the quality of content delivery, student learning and assessment thereof. This fellowship programme aims at capacity building and faculty development in a flexible manner. The fellowship programme will have 2 contact sessions of 1 week each at the beginning and end of year in addition to assignments.

2. No. of Seats : 20

3. Distribution of Seats : SC 25%
BC 10%
PwD 5%

4. Eligibility Criteria:

Post Graduates in Medicine/ Dentistry/ Nursing/ Physiotherapy/ Pharmacy/ Paramedical Sciences/ Allied Health Sciences with 3 years of post PG teaching experience.

OR

Non Health Sciences Professions faculty working in Health Professions Institutes/ Universities as Controller of Examinations (COE), Assistant COE, Deputy COE etc.

5. Medium of instruction for study and evaluation will be English.

6. Duration: 1 year

7. Fees Structure:

For internal candidates: Rs 40,000 for entire course

For external candidates: Rs 50,000 for entire course

Registration number will be allotted by university with the verification of following 3 certificates.

1. Qualification certificate/ post graduation degree
2. Experience certificate
3. No Objection Certificate indicating experience and current designation from controlling officer (Registrar/ Dean/ Vice Chancellor)

8. Details of course

- i. The course will comprise of 2 contact sessions of 7 days each at the beginning and the end of the tenure.
- ii. One project proposal will be submitted during first contact session. The students will carry the project work in the next 6-8 months under the guidance of faculty. The project report will be submitted before 2nd contact session.
- iii. 10 months will be dedicated for covering following topics:
 1. Principles of Assessment of Health Professions
 2. Assessment of Cognitive Domain
 3. Assessment of Psychomotor Domain
 4. Assessment of Affective Domain (including communication, professionalism and ethics)
 5. Competency Based Assessment
 6. Workplace Based Assessment
 7. Question Paper Setting
 8. Programmatic Assessment
 9. Using assessment as a Learning tool
 10. Recent advances in performance assessment
- iv. Topics will be covered by online asynchronous discussions and assignments. There will be written assignments covering various topics and both individual and group assignments will be done.
- v. Students will be required to submit the project report and also present the poster during 2nd contact session.

8. EVALUATION: Final evaluation will be based on:

- I. Participation in online and onsite discussions/ formal lectures/ practice sessions: 3 Credit hours.
- II. Assignments: 3 Credit hours.
- III. Project submission and evaluation through the office of Controller of Examinations (Evaluation by internal teachers only): 2 Credit hours.
- IV. Poster presentation: 2 Credit hours.

10. Students will be encouraged to publish their project work and also remain in discussion forum if they desire.

11. Final certification will be by Adesh University which is a UGC recognized University.